

Brian Stahl, Esq.

Brian Stahl is a principal on the business team at Hourigan, Kluger & Quinn, where his practice concentrates on business litigation, tax assessment litigation and real estate.

Attorney Stahl has litigated and effectively resolved various commercial cases, including breaches of contract, disputes involving non-competition agreements and trade secret issues, shareholder and partner disputes, and employment disputes. He has appeared in both state and federal courts and before arbitration panels on behalf of individuals and companies involved in disputes with other companies.

Additionally, he handles tax assessment litigation on behalf of numerous residential and commercial property owners throughout Pennsylvania. Representative clients include owners of assisted-living and long-term care facilities, hotel properties, retail shopping centers, manufacturing and distribution warehouses, energy generation facilities, golf courses and other entertainment centers, car dealerships, charitable institutions and industrial properties.

Attorney Stahl earned a Bachelor's Degree in business administration in 2003 from the University of Pittsburgh. In 2006, he earned a law degree from The Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, where he was a member of the Appellate Moot Court Board.

He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New York, and before the U.S Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania and the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania.